WE ARE THE HAWKS

SPECTRUM

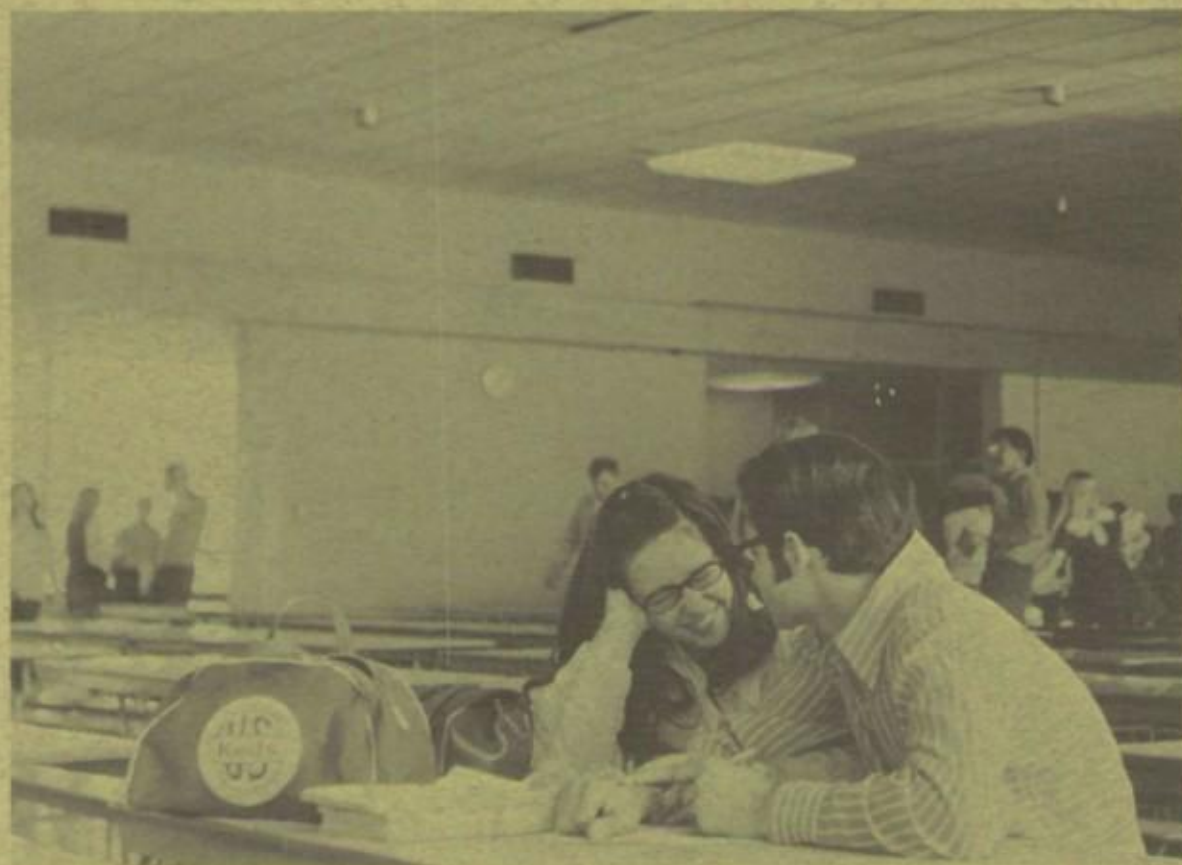

1971

*Greenfield High School
4800 South 60th Street
Greenfield, Wisconsin*

What is A Hawk?

Among the 1500 students attending G.H.S., there are many different types of people — each one, unique in himself. Each individual fits into some type of description of a Hawk — either rookie, greaser, G-boy, head or polly-prim. Every single student at G.H.S. does have one thing in common with all the other students, and that is he is a student at G.H.S. and therefore a HAWK.

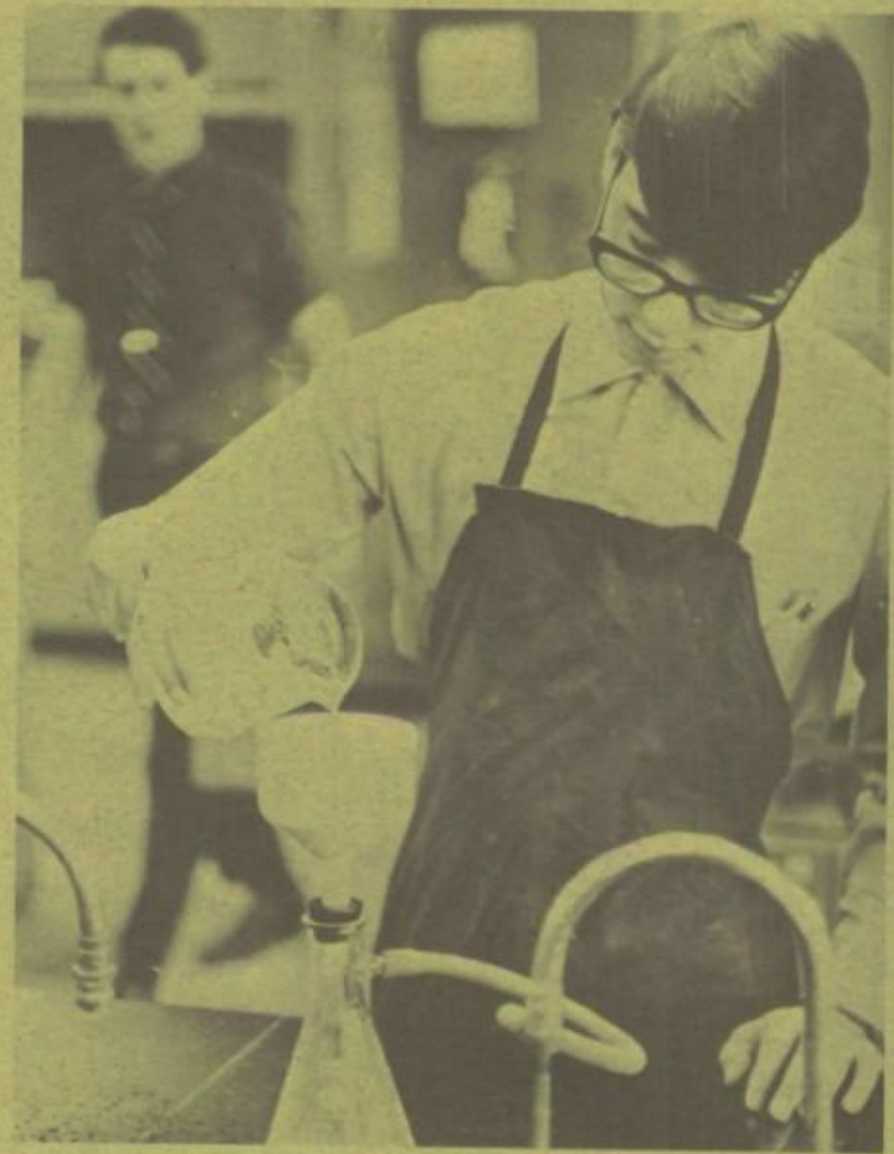

Well, It is Someone Who . . .

Hi Liz
It's been really nice
knowing you - we'll have to get together

... Takes It Seriously —

Life at G.H.S. is not all fun, games and laughter; nor is it all studies and classes. There are times when things have to be taken seriously. Such things as working out problems that involve you and another person, or hoping that what you are doing turns out right even though it isn't at the time, apply to each person.

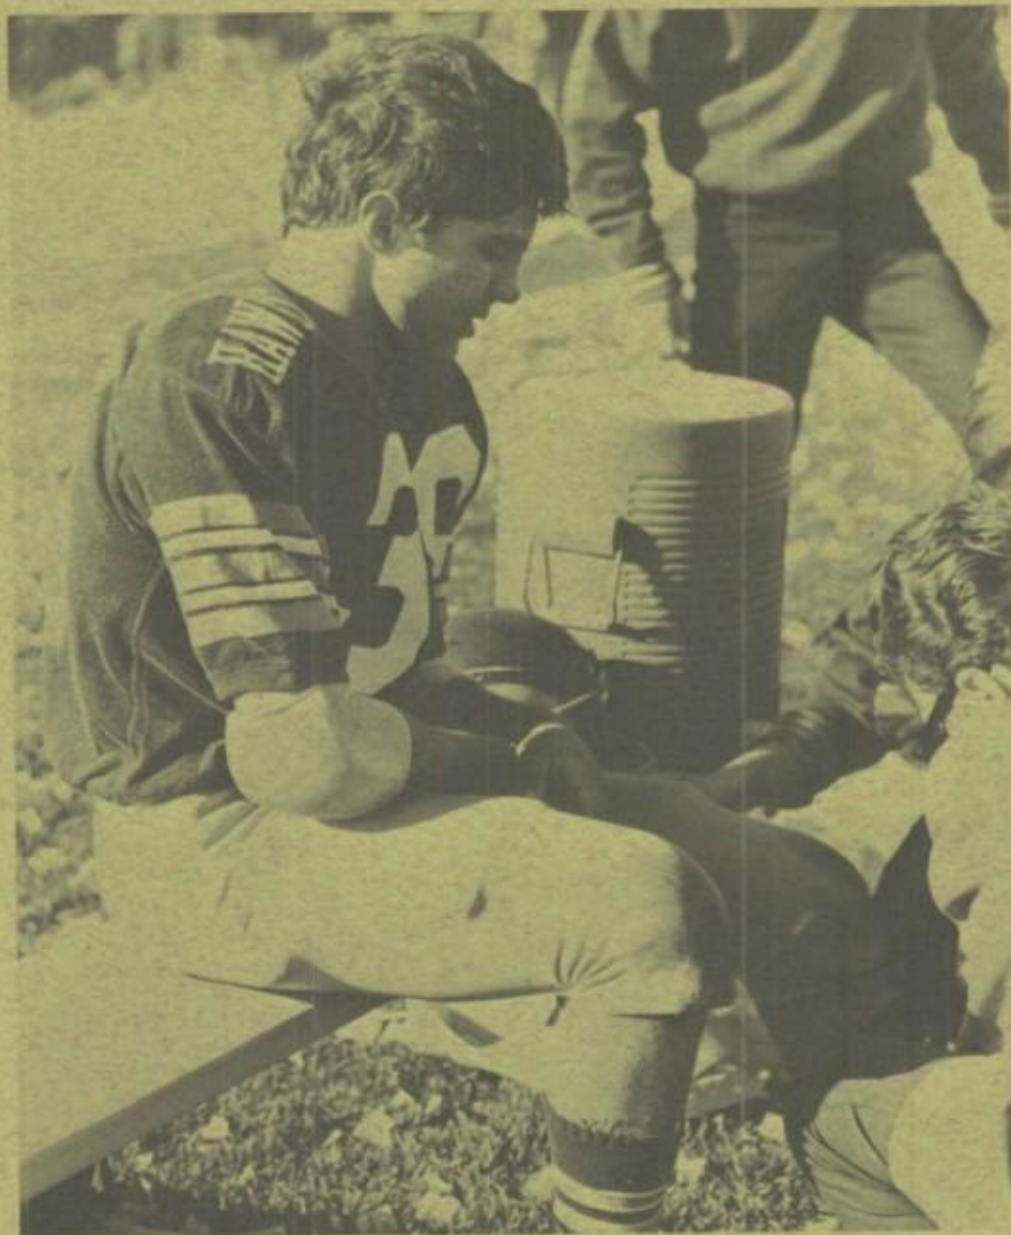

An empty hall provides the right situation to make a phone call for this boy.

Confiding in someone, offering advice, or just being with someone can make an event a memorable one.

To Show He Cares . . .

Hope, defeat, and anxiety are reflected on Lois Zank's face as she watches our Hawks in action.

Injury does not strike the opponent only; our players, such as Bill Baehring, know the feeling of "hurt."

Just talking seems to help — even if it is during class time and you are a hall monitor.

... Who Seems To

Study Once in A While . . .

Expresses Himself

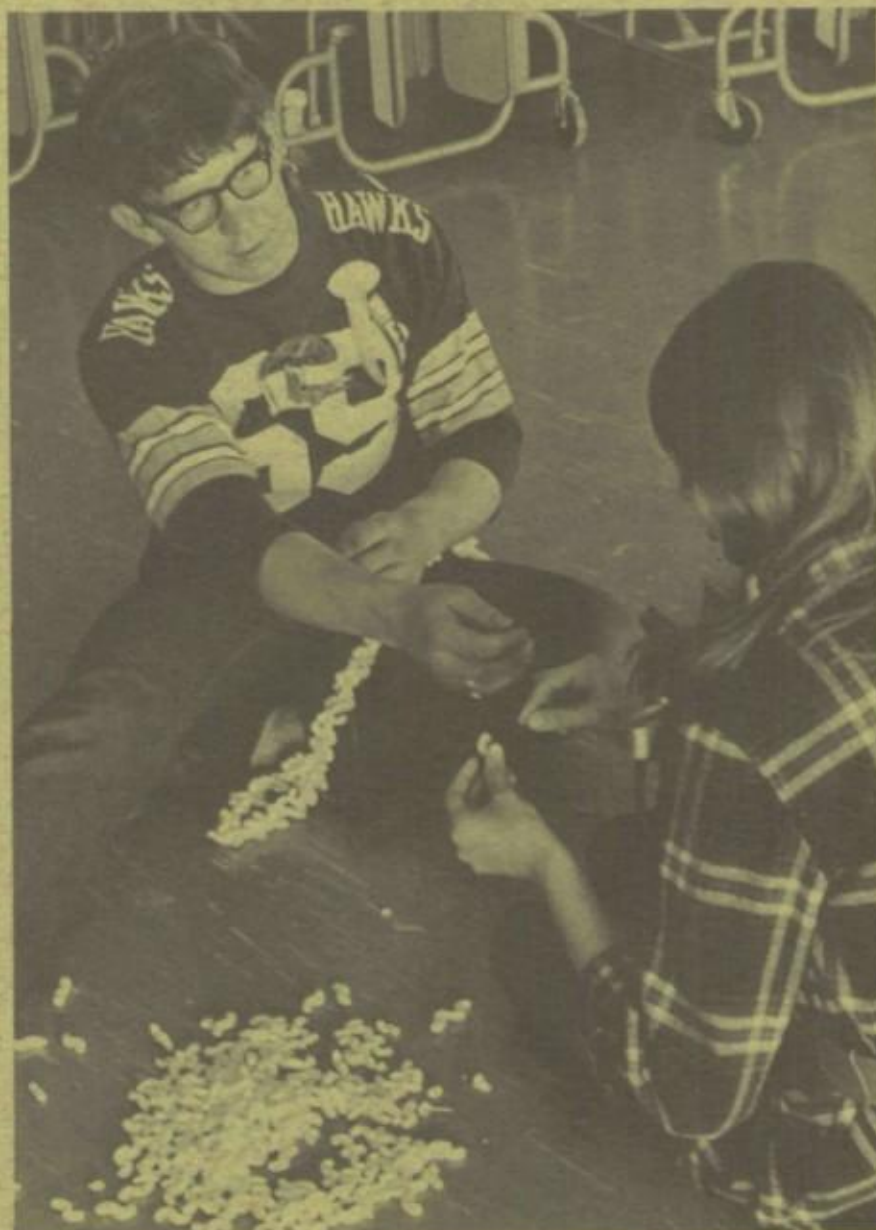

in Various Ways . . .

Manages To Have "Fun"

Dance decorations . . . Homecoming skits . . . clubs . . . hallways. What do all of these things have in common? They are situations in which the students of G.H.S. look for fun. Often times, no real recognition comes out of what they do. But to most "Hawks," recognition really is not THAT important. What does matter is that they are enjoying themselves and at the same time expressing themselves in a way that helps the school.

"So this is how our football players prepare for a big game!"

The Juniors showed their versatility as a class when "Pants" Masnica gave "Boom-boom" Schulz the once over.

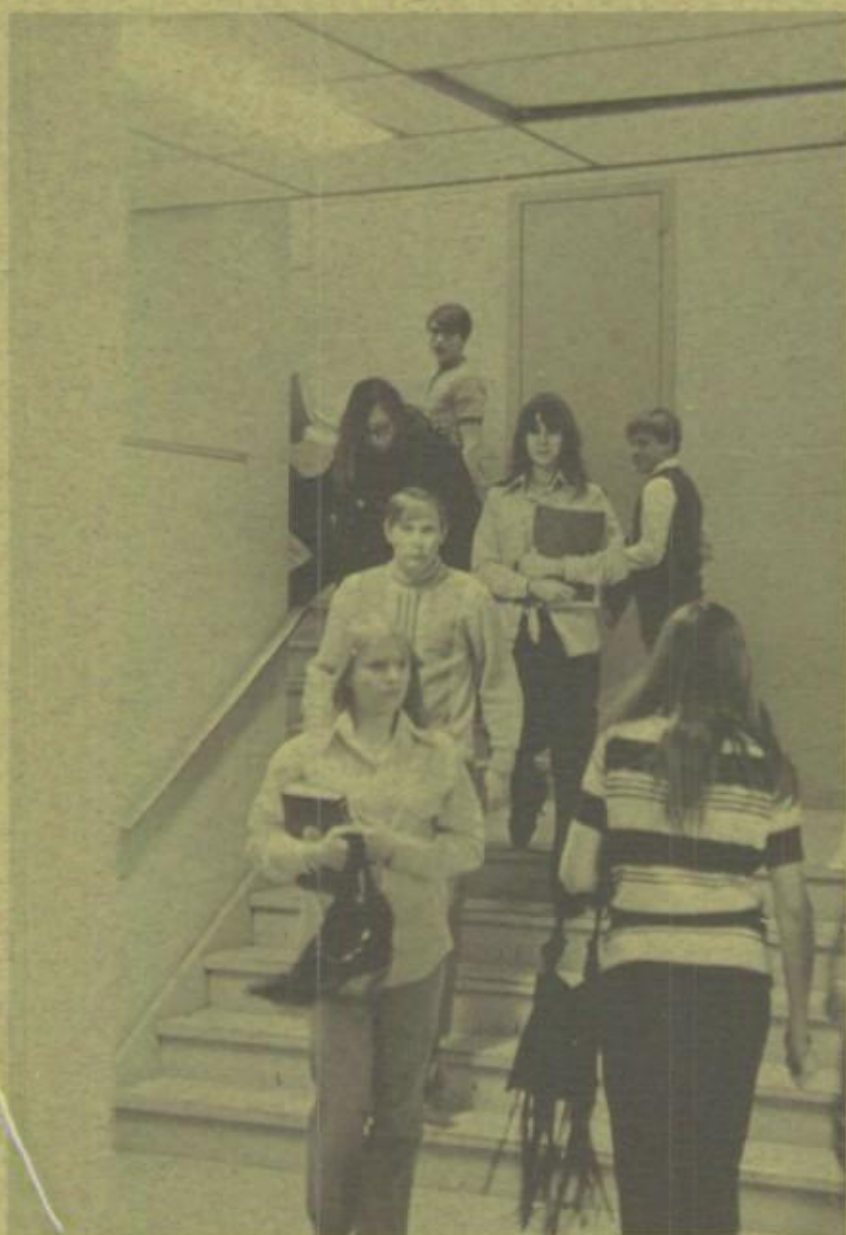

No Matter What He Does . . .

And this is typing?!

"Cheese!"

Make faces at the Spectrum photographer — it's lots of fun,

Scheherazade — 1970 Prom

COURT: Marcia Micklas, Judy Lee, Jan Hill, Becky Frank, Debi Lemke, Queen Jeanne Mueller, King Keith Sawallich, Pat O'Brien, Pat Guiney, Warren Young, Frank Szarynski, Garry Bauer. CROWNBEARERS: Michelle Fabry and Wayne Cranfield.

A Night of Arabian Splendor

After many months of planning and hard work, co-chairmen Debbie Gust and Michele Vukoje, and the rest of the prom committee created an Arabian fantasy for the 1970 Prom. At 8:30, May 2, 1970, the fantasy became a reality. Keith Sawallich and Jeanne Mueller were crowned king and queen to reign over "Scheherazade". Eleven thirty marked a change when "Scheherazade" became "La Nuit de Amour" at the Allis Chalmers Clubhouse.

Laughter. Disappointment. Surprise. Aloofness. Mockery. These were but a few of the many moods that were created in "Tom Jones" on May 13, 14, and 15, 1970. Under the direction of Mrs. Krueger, the all-school play was presented by some of the talented members of the GHS student body. The remaining students played the parts of crew and audience with great success.

The Odd Couple . . .

CAST MEMBERS Debbie Gust, Sue Brostowitz, Chuck Preusser.

lower left: "First my wife and then my London broil — when will it ever end?"

far right: "Felix, when will you give in. Don't be so darned stubborn!!!!!"

CAST MEMBERS Rich Schermeister, Greg Kegel, Pat Guiney, Russ Spahn, Paul Lewandowski.

What a Pair!

upper left: "Come on guys, you're going to wrinkle my jacket."

left: "I think I am going to sneeze!!!"

far lower left: "Who???"

A handshake by Greg Kegel welcomed Chuck Preusser as Paul Lewandowski and Rich Schermeister skeptically observed their new card player.

G.H.S.'s Ambassadors . . .

far right: Diane and Russ displayed their acting talent in this scene from "The Interview." right: Nancy seemed to say "Who me?" in this scene taken from the Theatre of the Absurd contest play.

Looks of puzzlement are shown here by Kathy, Russ, Rich and Sue.

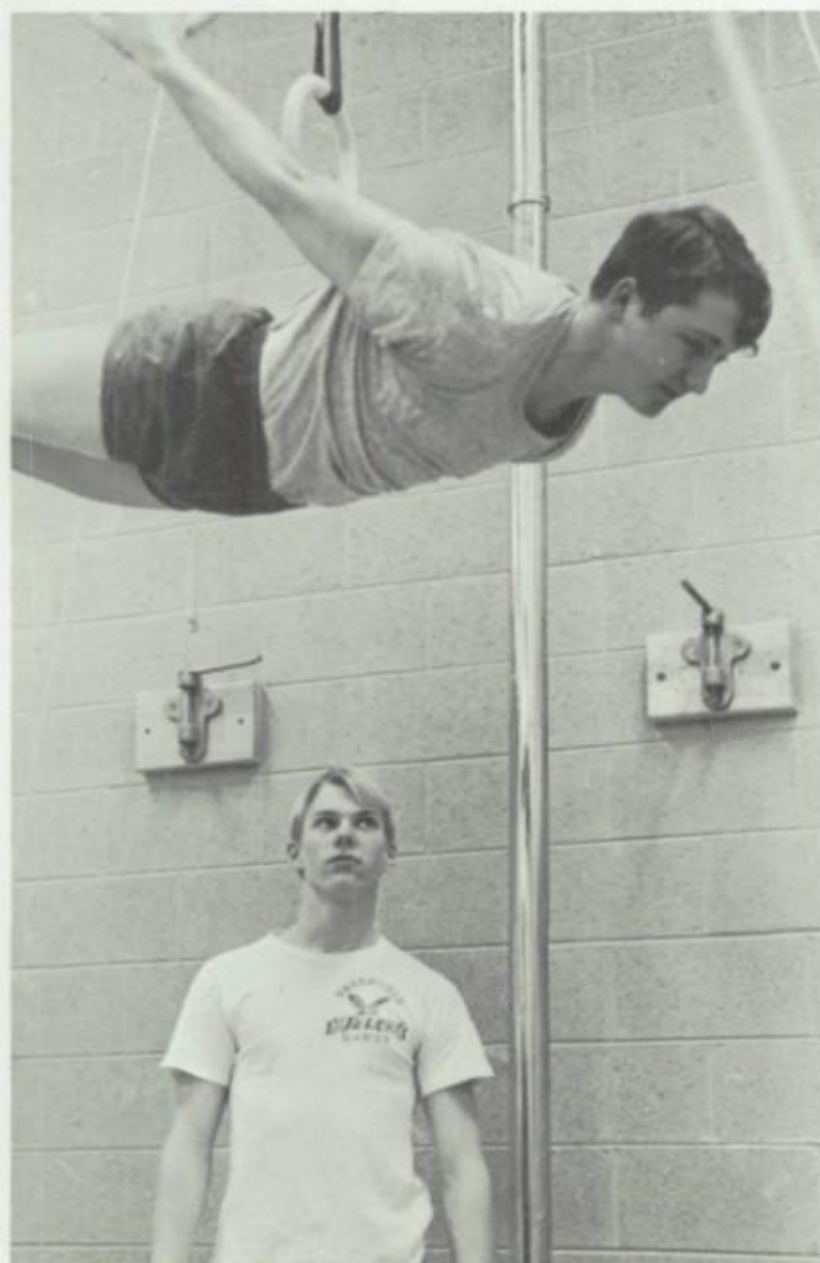

"The Interview," this year's one-act contest play, was without a doubt one of G.H.S.'s most successful plays. Thanks to the direction of Mrs. Kreuger and the talented, hard-working cast and crew. "The Interview" achieved the highest goal — a perfect "A" rating in state.

Carry Lots of Goodwill

Elmo is proud of the fact that his father makes the beverage which he is presenting Mr. Rebholz.

Elmo, who is here on a brand new plan that allows for a student to stay in one place for three months instead of the usual school year, enjoys reading and music. He attends a college in Recife, Brazil, and will return there upon his return. His sister is also an A.F.A. student; she lives in New Mexico. Elmo's parents are Mr. and Mrs. G. Franciskovic.

This year, we had two students under the A.F.S. program visit Greenfield and stay with families. Darjo Tercic, who came to us from Yugoslavia, and Elmo Carneiro, from Brazil, were our special guests.

The first thing that Darjo noticed was the flat countryside of the U.S. "I used to live among the mountains, rivers, woods." He, like many others who live in the U.S., is bothered by the amount of pollution that we have. Darjo especially liked the American foods and parties. Most of all, the students made him feel very much at home. He stayed with the Felske family.

Because of common interests, Mike Felske and his "brother," Darjo, spent much time together.

Homecoming 1970

Charles Preusser opened the pep assembly with the Mayor's proclamation.

The Varsity football players were in the limelight as Coach Trotalli introduced the starting lineup.

It was obvious that Homecoming 1970 was under way when Kris Downey and Frank Szarzynski were elected queen and king by an all-school vote. Many activities were planned for the week of October 12-17. The real action started with the bonfire on Thursday. Friday morning, senior girls received their green and gold mums. The skits were given that afternoon, and what a cry arose when it was announced that the class of 1971 had won the skit competition. The juniors vowed to win the float competition — and did, with LOOKS LIKE WE'LL DUNK 'EM, DON-UT. Kris and her court were introduced during the halftime of the game against Greendale. The weekend was climaxed with the crowning of Kris and Frank at "Scarborough Fair."

Coach Trotalli's life was the theme of the skit that won the class of '71 first place in the skit competition for the second time in a row.

The faculty skit included a solo by Johnny Cash (Miss Greil) who was accompanied by his wife (Mr. Rabe).

Greenfield 7, Greendale 17

After school, on October 16, 1970, the decoration committee, including Kathy Schuh, Marge Luettgen, and Jane Wallenfang, turned the cafeteria into a carnival atmosphere for the dance.

It looked like snow but it was only the fans showing their spirit during the Greenfield-Greendale game, Our Homecoming.

The huge bonfire that started Homecoming weekend was lit on Thursday, October 15.

Sadie Hawkins

The Sadie Hawkins dance, traditionally sponsored by the sophomore class, was held Saturday, October 31, 1970. According to custom, the girl asked the boy to go with her to the dance. At the dance, a Marryin' Sam was present to perform "mock weddings."

Two girls issued wedding licenses and "sold" weddings and rings to couples.

They Show Their

Each year, groups of people get together with a common interest. These groups are called clubs. Some of the clubs decide to show how their common interests link with their talents and participate in some type of show. Among these groups are the Aqua Fins and Orchesis. Practicing for their shows are shown the members of the "Love Is . . ." troupe and the modern dance show.

Under the leadership of Co-Editors Jill Jurcek and Gail Kotnarowski and the guidance of Miss Bock, the Campus Courier took on a new look. A larger page with an emphasis on G.H.S.'s problems and how everyone can help to solve them are only a few of the many changes that have been made in this year's edition of the school newspaper.

The various sections of the music department at GHS really worked hard to make 1971 a great musical year. The Esquires traveled to Eau Claire, where they were judged to be the seventh best stage band in the Midwest. The Senior band, besides marching at halftime during football games, performed in many concerts. Halftimes during basketball season and special assemblies were livened up by the music of the Pep Band, under the leadership of Pat Guiney. The Junior band made their presence felt by helping out with concerts and wherever else they were needed.

What do the words "girls," "sports," and "competition" have in common? They are all words that apply to G.A.A. — an organization of sports-minded girls who get together every week to participate in their favorite sport. Not only do they sponsor ski trips and other special activities, this year they also competed against the four classes and Boy's Pep Club in the Homecoming Float Contest with their "Her Bee".

A new club was started this year for all the boys who have school spirit and would like to show it. After lengthy debates on what to call it, someone came up with the bright idea, "Hey, why not Boy's Pep Club." With those words, one of the "peppiest clubs started its year. Homecoming was their first big "show" of the season as they competed in the float competition with their entry of "Greendale Has to Go." Besides building their float, the Boy's Pep Club has often attended Hawk sports and not only backed up the teams, but the cheerleaders as well!

Evidence that the Boy's Pep Club was "on the go!"

The making of original posters fell into the hands of a few Pep Club members.

What does a Pep Club member do? Well, besides make posters, sell booster buttons, attend games, scream her lungs out cheering for the "boys," and in general, try to build the spirit here at Greenfield High School, they do absolutely nothing as a member. But then, all of the above is what a Pep Club member is supposed to do — in addition to keeping her grades up.

Simply by winning a letter, a G.H.S. athlete becomes a member of the Lettermen's Club. But simply is not THE word. A lot of hard work and energy goes into a letter. It is a little bit of recognition for all that an athlete does. His doing does not stop when his season is up. Often during the year, he does other stuff. Among the things that he has done, you may have noticed that a familiar sight at a basketball game is our Letterman making and selling popcorn to the fans.

Leading our athletic teams as captains are the following boys: bottom row: Gary Kaszynski — baseball, Frank Szarzynski — baseball, Jeff LaFluer — gymnastics, Greg LaFluer — gymnastics, Pete Ruszkiewicz — wrestling, Bill Bradshaw — wrestling, Larry Palmtag — basketball. row two: Ralph Sajkowski — swimming, Jeff Rajchel — tennis, Jurgen Adam — tennis, Pat Guiney — track, Rich Wilinski — track, Mike Doolin — track, Mark Kujath — cross country, Paul Lewandowski — cross country, Dave Johnson — cross country, Dave Wipijewski — football, Ron Frahm — football, Keith Sawallich — football and basketball.

The 1970 "Harriers" were led by co-captains Mike Walsh and Keith Sarnow. Their season was marred by the fact that they tied for seventh in conference, which is a little lower than they had finished in previous years. Sarnow, who gave such a perfect picture of the hard-work and determination that every team member had, was chosen as the team's most valuable player. Elections decided that Pat Guiney, Mike Doolin, and Rich Wilinski would lead the 1971 track team.

Of Hard Hitting Hawks

Although the Hawks finished with a conference record of three wins, three losses, and two ties and an overall record of four wins, three losses, and two ties; they fought hard with ambition and drive. Led by co-captains Ron Frahm, Keith Sawallich, and Dave Wipijewski; the team showed their Hawk spirit and pride by their valiant efforts. Two Hawk football players were chosen to be on the All-Conference roster. They were: Ron Frahm, who made the offensive and defensive teams, and Keith Sawallich, who received praise as an offensive end. Receiving honorable mention for their efforts were Gary Talatzko and Frank Szarzynski. Frahm also received the "Most-Valuable Player" award. Next year's captains were elected and they were John Christensen and Gary Kaszynski.

Without a doubt, Greenfield was the Parkland Conference's premier performer this year in Cross Country. Not only did Coach Haymann's Harriers go undefeated against all Parkland rivals in dual meet competition, but they also were victorious in the Conference meet and the perennially tough Marshall Invitational. "All-Conference" medalists Pat Guiney, Paul Rediske, and Mike Doolin placed 2nd, 4th, and 8th respectively in the Parkland meet. Guiney was recipient of the Most Valuable Player award.

Again this year, the Guppies ranked in the State Top Five. Until the State Meet, the only two teams that kept GHS from having an unblemished record were Greendale and Wauwatosa West. Greendale defeated the Guppies in the dual meet, but they were defeated in both the Conference meet and at state. Wauwatosa West beat the Guppies at the Trojan Invitational and went on to capture the state championship.

The season started slowly with undecisive victories over young teams. The last dual meet of the year was against Franklin, two-year Conference Champs. GHS remained undefeated with eleven wins and no losses. The Grapplers took Conference but had to share the title with Franklin. The Sectional meet saw GHS place fourth, with Ron Brzozowski being the only wrestler to qualify for the State meet.

Siz:

Why do you always have to do things perfectly!
You make me sick
sometimes! Well,
have fun at White-
water and don't go to too many parties! (I never know what to write!)

Someday we have to get together and
have a big discussion
about Fibare! We also have to join
the "Art Co-op" (maybe)
Be warm not cool!
and remember "The
first thing you give
to someone is love"
Good luck with Steve!
Well I guess this is the end!

Joe
